BIG RED CROSS WHIST AT ARMORY

144 Tables Were Playing-Successful Affair Arranged by Norwich Women Expected to Realize $500-Proceeds Will Go to American Red Cross Relief Fund for European War Sufferers.

wich, except the weather clerk, was enlisted in one way or another on Friday evening to assist the committee of Norwich women in the whist that was held at the armory for the benefit of the American Red Cross fund for the relief of the sufferers by the war in Europe. A pouring rain, the first in weeks, came down all through the evening, yet there were 144 tables of whist, auction, bridge and plain whist, playing in the big drill shed from 8 to 10 o'clock, and the sale of tickets and the financial receipts in other ways encourages the committee to expect that the proceeds of the evening will reach the satisfactory sum of $500. The armory had been made particularly attractive for the evening in a decorative scheme of lavender, this color covering the walls and celling, with masses of autumn foliage arranged at both ends of the hall, while draperies of pale green flowered cloth simulated the effect of windows along the side. Two big red crosses on a white field were shown on the wall on the side. Two big red crosses on a white field were shown on the wall on either side of the orchestra stand.

In the arrangement of these the committee arrangement of these the committee on decorations had the valued assistance of Morgan Cronin of the Boston store, John Carney and William McLaren of the Southern New England Telephone company and John P. Corcoran, Richard Lane and Benjamin F. Brewster.

Music for the Evening For an hour, from 7 to 8 o'clock, be-For an hour, from 7 to 8 o'clock, before the play began, the Harmony club rendered a delightful concert programme, and after the play music for dancing was rendered until midnight by an orchestra directed by E. tell you a tooth can be saved if it can't, to secure a fee for treatments. On the other hand we always advise you to save your teeth if possible. Our system of Dentistry has saved many teeth that have been pronounced worthless. You're sure of absolutely honest advice here. No charge for examinations, and only the most reasonable prices for the most skillful work-always absolutely painless - work that stands the test of time.
